Mrs. Brentlinger May be Committed to Hospital

Dr. F. I. Tussing, local physician, will recommend that Mrs. I. W. Brentlinger, 614 North Shore-dr., be sent to a state hospital, he informed John Carlyle, deputy state fire marshal, Saturday.

The state fire official came here to investigate the fire which partially destroyed household goods in the Brentlinger home, the night of April 12.

With Fire Chief John Mack, he went over the entire structure Saturday, finding places where coal oil apparently had been soaked into rags in various parts of the house, Carlyle declared.

After going over the house and talking to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wollert, 612 North Shore-dr., who reside in the other half of the double house, they went to 204 Burk-st., where Mrs. Brentlinger is staying since the fire.

Carlyle, after talking to her a few minutes, said it would do no good to question her further. Dr. Tussing arrived a few minutes later and after seeing his patient, told the fire official he would recommend to Probate Judge Hamilton that she be sent to a state hospital.

FATHER GIVES PERMISSION

Chicago Heiress Now Bride of Swiss Riding Master

LONDON — (United Press) — Secretly married Thursday in a London registry office, Mathilde McCormick, Chicago heiress, and Max Oser, Swiss riding master, are believed to be in Scotland on a honeymoon today. The daughter of Harold F. and Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick became of age, 18, this week, and thus was free to marry the man of her choice, a man more than twice her age, who taught her to ride, when she was a little girl and with whom, according to herself, she has been in love ever since.

PERMISSION GIVEN
Harold F. McCormick, now in the United States, gave his permission for the marriage in a letter, the content being sworn to before a British consular general. Oser is described on the register as Guillaume (William) Max Oser, age 45, bachelor, major Swiss army, address 127 Argowan-st., Hithergreen, father John Jacob Oser, deceased.

Niece McCormick as spinster, age 18, independent means, address Old Court Mansions, Kensington, father Harold Fowler McCormick, agricultural machinery manufacturer.

FARM REFUSED BY STATE OF OHIO

Donahay Vetoes Bill Authorizing Acceptance of Bequest

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — For the third time the state of Ohio today refused to accept a large farm in Green-co bequeathed to the state under the will of John Bryan on condition that "any religious public worship" be forbidden on the premises.

Former Governors Cox and Davis both had refused the bequest on behalf of the state and today Governor Donahay vetoed the bill of Representative Calvert of Clark-co which would have authorized its acceptance.

Citing the ordinance of 1857, the constitution of the United States and the state constitution, Governor Donahay based his refusal on both moral and monetary grounds and asked if its acceptance would not "shock the good conscience of the commonwealth."

PLOTS TO MURDER UNEARTHED

Revealed in Documents Found in London Irish Homes

PLANS NIPPED BY RAIDERS

Killing of British, Property Destruction in Program

LONDON — (Associated Press) — Documents revealing plots involving the destruction of life and property in London are reported to have come into possession of Scotland Yard as the result of last night's raid on residences or resorts of Irishmen and women, suspected of being Republican supporters.

Among the plans said to have been revealed were plots to attack London's lighting and power resources—the underground power stations, efforts to release Irish prisoners from London prisons and projected attempts on the lives of high police officials.

PLANS FAR REACHING
It is stated that the plots had huge ramifications in Great Britain and particularly in London and had reached such a stage that a delay of a week by the police might have resulted in the scheme being put into operation.

Among the plans was one for attacking police officers in their houses. A prominent former cabinet minister is believed to have been marked for attack.

The Tire You Should Use On YOUR Car.

DAYTON

THOROBRED CORDS

Here's a tire that is built to give maximum service with LESS AIR PRESSURE than original standard tire requirements.

That means that if you use Dayton Thorobred Tires on your car you will not only have the wonderful mileage for which these tires have established a reputation, the beauty that has made them so attractive in appearance, the ability to resist wear, to stand up under punishment, to deliver constant, hard, uninterrupted service,—but now you are going to have four more advantages:

- 1st—Reduced air pressure protects your car from vibration, eliminates a lot of the squeaks and rattles, reduces wear and tear on the chassis and body, and reduces the expense of upkeep and repairs.
- 2nd—Reduced air pressure greatly improves the riding qualities of your car, adds to the comfort of motoring, and relieves the cause of fatigue and discomfort.
- 3rd—Reduced air pressure is a great safeguard against skidding.
- 4th—Reduced air pressure makes a tire less easily punctured and enables it to pass over sharp objects in the road that would cause puncture in a highly inflated tire.

And now comes this great announcement which we think is one of the most far-reaching improvements ever introduced into the tire business.

If you will come into our store we will explain to you the principle of construction that enables you to drive Dayton Thorobred Cords underinflated.

Or, on request we will send you a copy of the book called "The Making of a Thorobred" describing this construction.

We want to add just this—that our unqualified endorsement is back of the Dayton Thorobred Cord Tire, and that the guarantee remains unchanged, and also that the price is mighty low for a tire of such quality as the Dayton Thorobred Cord.

DUCHESSES MAKING THEIR DRESSES

Preparations in Progress for Duke of York's Wedding

DUCHESSES ARE COMPLETED

Are Duchess' Wardrobe to Outdo Princess Mary's

LONDON — (Associated Press) — When Lady Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon goes up her abode with the Duke of York after the wedding on April 26, she will have one of the most sumptuous wardrobes in the world as well as a wealth of priceless jewels and high furniture to fill a dozen rooms.

Modistes of New York, Paris, London and even far-off Australia are contributing their skill in the creation of the bride's trousseau which the persons say is richer than that which was prepared for Princess Mary. The future duchess already has 65 gowns.

Luxurious and handsome gifts to the bride of tens of thousands of dollars continue to pour in upon the bride and bridegroom.

The most costly of the gifts is a dress of pearls and diamonds necklaces and a wedding ring of pure Australian gold given by the Duke.

Most unusual of all the presents, however, is a remarkable clock which addition to showing the hours, minutes and seconds in the usual way, also indicates the day of the month and of the month and of the day of the month, and after a stroke of each hour plays a march. On dial is a representation of Whitehall while figures of the king, queen and all the members of the royal family pass around in a gay procession.

As becomes a Scottish clock, no marches are played on Sunday. Another novel gift is an illuminated address of congratulation from 1,000 boys of the Young Men's Christian Association. Fourteen huge Christmas trees have been presented to the bride.

It is understood that the first part of the honeymoon will be spent at a mansion about thirty miles from London. The couple will later go to Sandringham, the bride's home.

PLAY DANCING KNIGHTS — COLUMBUS, SATURDAY, APR. 11, 8:30.

NEW VIOLIN PRODIGY DISCOVERED

OMAHA, Neb. — (Special) — With an artist's "G.I." placed upon him by Fritz Kreisler, master violinist, Sammy Carmel, 12-year-old New York violin prodigy, will go to New York to receive an artist's education at the expense of Omahans who have become interested in him.

Sammy is just an ordinary western boy, born in a house of moderate means. He likes to fish, to play marbles, and in other ways to cultivate luck.

But back in the depths of his dark eyes something glimmers that you don't see in every boy's eyes.

"The spark of genius," said Omaha musicians.

Since he was a very tiny lad Sammy has cherished his violin. From a very young age he's been appearing in public at home-talent dramatic entertainments.

It was at one of these that a talented Omaha musician heard him. He told others. Patrons of art became interested.

"If the boy has got the stuff in him, we'll pay the expense of his education," this group decided.

But who was to pass on Sammy's possibilities?

Michael Elman came. But he was too busy to give the lad a try-out.

Finally came Fritz Kreisler. He consented to listen to Sammy. He even accompanied Sammy on the piano. Sammy had only played a few bars when—

"The boy has real talent!" Kreisler interrupted.

"He should be sent to Franz Kneisel in New York for training."

So Sammy's packing his boy's treasures—and his violin—and getting ready to leave.

MILLIONS ADDED TO PAYROLLS

Ten Per Cent Wage Increase is Voted By Packers

200,000 WORKERS AFFECTED

Second Step as Alternative for Industrial Unionism

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) — "Industrial democracies" in the "big five" packing plants of the country have resolved directly to 80,000 workers and indirectly to 120,000 more, the ten per cent of their wages which the same plant legislatures took away in November, 1921.

Announcement last night that the plant assemblies had voted pay increases marks the second big step instituted by the packers as an alternative for industrial unionism.

The five companies directly affected—Armour, with the Morris and company plants it recently purchased; Swift, Wilson and Cudahy—employ 30,000 workers. Independent companies and subsidiaries which are expected to follow suit will bring to another 120,000 men and women.

NET RESULTS — The increases will add more than $2,500,000 yearly to the payroll of Armour and company, with its 35,000 workers.

In Chicago the increase will give employees now getting 37-1-2 cents an hour a five cent raise, semi-skilled workers will get four cents an hour more; skilled workers three cents and girls five cents.

Increases in other cities will depend somewhat upon local conditions.

PUTNAM SCHOOLS WILL CLOSE

Six Thousand Youngsters to be Loosed Next Week

'School' bells will ring next week for pupils of the Putnam-co system of schools for the last time until fall. Between 5,500 and 6,000 youngsters will be "turned loose" to help daddy on the farm, assist mother in the kitchen, to enjoy the old swimmin' hole or something else equally enticing—if it warm weather ever comes.

The Putnam-co school superintendent has distributed the lists of questions that will be submitted to the pupils for the final examinations. Putnam-co has the uniform examination system.

Almost all schools in the county are eight-month institutions, but a few are conducted on the nine-month term plan and will close a month later than the others.

The 204 teachers of the county system will leave for their vacations take up normal or other school work or engage in occupations of various kinds until the schools re-open.

The county board of education will soon take steps to engage teachers for the succeeding term. All will be secured by August 1. After that date it is impossible for a teacher to resign without breaking his or her contract.

Examinations for teachers will be conducted the first Saturday of May, July and September and the last Friday of August.

The Putnam-co board of education may adopt a recommendation from the state department of public instruction that an opportunity be given teachers to take six weeks' additional normal training, which is regarded as the equivalent of the examinations. The examinations, however, may be taken in lieu of it.

The board has not yet come to a decision in the matter.

LIQUOR FOUND BEHIND TILE WALL BY RAIDERS

YOUNGSTOWN — The "soft drink" saloon of Pete Sirbu in the downtown district, often raided by prohibition agents, gave up its secrets today when state agents and city police raided the basement and found 480 gallons of liquor, they say, behind a tile wall. Sirbu and Romeo Vasu, to whom he sold the business only yesterday, were arrested.

State agents said they found that liquor was brought into the place by a secret passage leading to the upper floor. There it was poured into an ordinary washstand, the pipes of which led to vats in the secret cellar. Other pipes led from the vats to the "soft drink" cafe, tempting in what were apparently innocent water faucets.

The officers believe they have discovered the clearing house for many illegal liquor transactions.

LIQUOR FOUND BEHIND TILE WALL BY RAIDERS

YOUNGSTOWN — The "soft drink" saloon of Pete Sirbu in the downtown district, often raided by prohibition agents, gave up its secrets today when state agents and city police raided the basement and found 480 gallons of liquor, they say, behind a tile wall. Sirbu and Romeo Vasu, to whom he sold the business only yesterday, were arrested.

State agents said they found that liquor was brought into the place by a secret passage leading to the upper floor. There it was poured into an ordinary washstand, the pipes of which led to vats in the secret cellar. Other pipes led from the vats to the "soft drink" cafe, tempting in what were apparently innocent water faucets.

APPRAISAL PLEA IS INVALID

Law Enacted by State Legislature Halts Local Move

EFFECTIVE IN TWO YEARS

Increased Tax Not Available Until November 1924

Statewide reappraisal of real estate authorized by the legislature will not become effective in Allen county for almost two years, County Auditor C. R. Phillips declares. Taxpayers will commence paying on the basis of the reappraisal at tax time in December, 1924. Preparation for making a reappraisal of Lima and Allen county is being started by Phillips. The task of valuing and hearing complaints promises to consume many months. Duplicates for making the reappraisal are being prepared by clerks. Phillips' announcement dashes hopes of Lima city officials, who desire to see the reappraisal made in time for December collections in 1923. The law passed by the legislature provides for a general reappraisal every few years. This portion insures recurrence of existing conditions, where property valuations have rapidly outstripped the worth listed for purposes of taxation.

PETITION INVALID

Petition filed with Auditor Phillips by 27 Lima taxpayers on March 3, asking that a reappraisal of Lima real estate be made, is said to be invalid.

Two of the 27 men and women asking that city property be revalued for taxation at its true worth, are not owners of property, Phillips declares.

Of the remaining 25, four persons failed to answer an inquiry sent out by the auditor asking to learn what property they own.

Because of the enactment of the state law, ordering a general reappraisal, Phillips declares he feels it is useless to proceed with the city petition.

FRIEDA HEMPEL DELIGHTS AUDIENCE OF THOUSAND IN MEMORIAL HALL CONCERT

From her opening solo, "Tis the Last Rose of Summer," until her closing number, the second encore to "Home, Sweet Home," Miss Frieda Hempel more than delighted the audience of over one thousand people in Memorial hall, Friday evening.

The concert surpassed all expectations of the music lovers of Lima. They did not know that such a quiet vocal tones could be produced and in such a charming manner. Miss Hempel sang two very lovely arias, "Casta Diva" and "North Star," both with flute obbligato. Schumann's "The Nut Tree" was very well received. It was a Norwegian melody, "The Herdman's Song." Her "Greeting to America," written for Jenny Lind at her first concert in America, was splendid and her audience was inspired by the patriotic note which ran thru it.

The work of Coenraad V. Bos, pianist, was well received. Louis F. Fritz, flutist, received applause following his solos.

In short, the concert was a success. Mrs. Clem Barter, president of the Women's Music club, and her coworkers have reason to feel gratified over the result of their efforts in bringing Frieda Hempel to Lima.

NO OPERATION FOR HER

She Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Escaped the Operation Doctor Advised

Louisville, Ky. - "I wish to thank you for what your medicine has done for me. I was in bed for eight or nine days every month and had a great deal of pain. The doctor said my only relief was an operation. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine and tried the Vegetable Compound and the Sarsaparilla Wash, and they surely did wonders for me. I feel fine all the time now, also am picking up in weight. I will tell any one that your medicines are wonderful, and you may publish my letter if you wish." - Mrs. Ed. Bosenman, 1130 Ash St., Louisville, Ky.

Backache, nervousness, painful times, irregularity, tired and run-down feelings are symptoms of female troubles. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be taken whenever there is reason to fear such troubles. It contains nothing that can injure, and tends to tone up and strengthen the organs concerned, so that they may lead a healthy, normal manner. Let it help you as it has thousands of others. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is now selling almost all over the world.

WAR ON RATS IS PLANNED HERE

Bureau of Biological Survey Will be Asked to Help

If a sufficient number of Allen county farmers desire it, the department of agriculture will send out men equipped to institute a county-wide campaign for the extermination of rats, H. J. Ridge, Allen county agent stated Saturday.

The Bureau of Biological Survey has recently completed the organization of a number of county-wide rat campaigns in the southern states. The campaign has resulted in the education of residents of the infected districts in the need and the method of rat control.

Damage done by rats is frequently underestimated by local farmers. Ridge believes, in addition to damage to grains they are conveyors of disease producing organisms which affect both man and domestic animals. In a recent survey made in North Carolina it was found that rats had done a five per cent damage to corn stored in that state.

The department of agriculture, which will put on the campaign, asks that farmers communicate with the local county agent, who in turn will report what preparations are being made and will make further arrangements for the campaign.

Increasing acidity of Allen county farm lands is being fought by the use of lime, H. J. Ridge, county agent stated Saturday in commenting on a report from the state university declaring that an area equal to six average counties in eastern Ohio has gone out of cultivation due to soil acidity.

That lime is being used with good results all over the state is evidenced by figures received from soil scientists at the university. These statistics show that 98,000 pounds of limestone were bought in 1920; 119,000 pounds in 1921 and 140,000 in 1922.

Lime is the best known corrective of soil acidity. Ridge declares. It neutralizes the acid and helps make effective certain elements of fertility tied up in an acid soil and unavailable to plants.

PIG CLUB PLANNED
W. H. Palmer, state club leader, was presented Friday night at a meeting at Continental when initial steps were taken in organization of a pig club. Palmer was assisted by John Anderson. School children gave a speaking contest.

"AMERICANIZE ALL ALIENS IN LIMA," SLOGAN ADOPTED BY THE AMERICAN LEGION

"Americanize every alien in Lima," was the message given members of the American Legion in a brief talk made before them by Congressman John L. Cable, Friday night.

Cable declared there are more than 2,000 aliens in Lima who are not citizens. Out of this number only about 20 are preparing themselves to become citizens.

He urged the Legion to get into Americanization work 100 per cent and take the initiative in Ohio in educating and informing aliens as to laws, methods of government, deals and history of the nation.

The Legion Cable declared, is the one organization which can take the lead in this work. He recommended the appointment of a committee, composed partly of native born and partly of foreign born war veterans, to carry on this work.

When Baby Complains.

THERE ARE MANY WAYS a baby has of expressing any sort of irregularity or discomfort from its normal condition of health and happiness. A short sharp cry, a prolonged irritated cry, a constant turning of the head or of the whole body, frequent, in these and other ways a baby tells you there is something wrong. Most mothers know that a disordered stomach, or bowels that do not act naturally are the cause of most of baby's sufferings. A call for the doctor is the first thought, but in the event of any delay there should be ready at hand a safe remedy such as Fletcher's Castoria.

Castoria has been used for baby's ailments for over 80 years and has merited the good will of the family physician in a measure not accorded by any other baby's medicine because of its harmlessness and the good results achieved.

And remember this: Castoria is essentially a baby's remedy and not a cure-all for every member of the family. What might help you is too often dangerous when given to a baby.

Castoria always bears the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher

CRIGUI IS MODEL OF GOLF CHAMPION WRITES FOR NEWS MANHOOD

(BY JOSEPHINE VAN DE GRIFT)

NEW YORK—Who's showing the world how to be physically perfect? Why, the prize fighter. And who's showing the world how to be morally perfect? Why—er, the prize fighter. You might just as well come out and admit it. Take this Monsieur Crigui, for instance. Monsieur Crigui has come over here to shake hands with Johnny Kilbane, after which he expects to sew up the world's feather-weight championship in a bag and take it back to La Belle France.

Would Monsieur Crigui stay out after curfew. Or play red dog for so much as a nickel a limit? Or look twice on a piece of French pastry? On Monsieur's life, he would not. Why, bless your soul, he won't even one-step! His favorite music is Carmen.

CRIGUI'S CAREER

My parley with Crigui took place in the office of Dan McKetrick, local representative for Crigui, newly arrived in America, who sat meekly in a chair. His manager, Robert Eudeline, sat opposite. The four interpreters hopped excitedly about. "Tell me," I said in effect to Crigui, "the story of your life." Crigui looked puzzled. The interpreters interpreted. Crigui began to speak. The four interpreters gesticulated wildly. Out of it all I was able to gather the following things about Crigui:

Crigui is 30 years old and weighs 122 pounds. His first official combat took place when he was 15 years old. It was a small affair of four rounds, but Crigui was victorious and a grateful manager bestowed upon him the sum of 15 francs. Crigui blew in his winnings on the gang and straightaway became a popular idol. Since that time he has taken part in 105 bouts and has won all but eight of them.

WORLD WAR HERO

The official record of his battles does not include the late European conflict in which Crigui encountered a bullet which tore away the lower part of his jaw, disrupted 19 of his teeth, cruelly lacerated his tongue and finally emerged triumphantly at the back of his neck.

French surgeons pattered around with him, took out a piece of one of his ribs, and used it to make Crigui a new jaw. Then they made him a new set of teeth. But for two years and more Crigui lay in the hospital, speechless and without hope.

Enter Monsieur Eudeline. "Courage, boy, courage," whispered Monsieur Eudeline, who had already seen something of what Crigui could do. Crigui took courage and staged the comeback which made him champion of Europe.

Sleep is the most important item in Crigui's daily routine. He sleeps from eight to 10 hours and takes a short nap during the day. For breakfast he has "casse au lait," cup of coffee. For luncheon and supper he has many, many vegetables and much red meat. Chicken he does not like, it has "too many bones." For an hour or so each afternoon he plays belotte with his trainer or sparring partners. But it is for recreation, not for war of course—Crigui leaned back in his chair and smiled pleasantly at the recollection.

A. A. U. MAY LET PADDOCK GO TO EUROPE AFTER ALL

BOSTON—Now that Charlie Paddock, crack sprinter, has started on his way across the United States and has announced he will sail soon from New York for Europe to take part in the Paris games, the Amateur Athletic Union has modified its views slightly. A vote is being taken and if the Paris games are "recognized" Paddock will be "allowed" to go by the A. A. U.

BABE RUTH'S GOLF WORK GETS HIM IN BAD SITUATION

SPRINGFIELD, Mo.—Early in the morning Babe Ruth decided he would take a little exercise with his golf clubs.

So he went out on the edge of the railroad tracks and gave the little rubber ball a healthy whack. Then he heard a yell and a trainman came up the track and demanded an explanation of his broken lantern.

Hereafter the Babeino thinks he'll do his exercising in the day time.

"A stylist without a peer! This is the compliment that Jock Hutchison pays to Mike Brady, western open champion, who has become a regular contributor to the News sport page.

Brady has been playing golf for 25 years and always has ranked among the country's 10 best golfers. Twice Brady has tied for the honor of winning the national open championship, only to lose the title in the playoff. In 1911 at Wheaton he finished in a triple tie with McDonald Smith and J. J. McDermott. In the playoff he finished second to McDermott by two strokes. In 1913 Brady finished second to McDermott once more. In 1919 at the Braeburn course in Boston he finished in a tie with Walter Hagen. In the playoff Hagen beat him by one stroke, 77 against a 78. In a dozen championship tournaments Brady has lost by only a stroke or two. This hard luck, instead of disheartening him, has made him a keen analyst of the game—for after every match Brady goes over his play stroke by stroke, studiously, critically, figuring out wherein he erred and how to improve his game. The benefit of this information he passes on in winter to players at the Miami County Club and summer to players at the Oakland Hills Club in Detroit, where he succeeded Walter Hagen, British open champion. And henceforward he will pass it on to readers of the News sport page.

N. Y. Clubs Favored To Win

NEW YORK — Baseball fan-dom's pulse beat a little quicker today as the smoke of another diamond campaign became more pronounced. With most of the other major league squads already on their home grounds, all three Metropolitan clubs today were scheduled for their first home appearances in exhibition games, the Yankees playing Brooklyn while the Giants engaged the White Sox.

According to camp followers, both championship New York clubs are in excellent condition. Taking into account the inevitable uncertainty of the game a majority of experts view the coming American League race as a neck and neck struggle between the Yankees and Ty Cobb's Detroit Tigers. In the National League they predict a three cornered affair with the Giants, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati.

OUTSIDE CHANCE

An outside chance is conceded the Chicago Cubs in the National League, while the Chicago White Sox, more potent than at any time since the departure of the 1919 world's series scandal principals and the Philadelphia Athletics, reviving Connie Mack's great memories of his famous team of a decade ago, looms as factors in the American League struggle.

On paper, the Giants appear the most likely of the New York entries to repeat. The twirling staff is the most vulnerable point. Pittsburgh's seasoned veterans will concede little, if anything, to the Giants on all-round strength and in addition the Pirates have a more consistent pitching staff. Cincinnati may feel the absence of the veteran Jake Daubert for a while, because of illness, but the Reds have a youthful outfit besides a corps of box men second to none in the league.

PSYCHOLOGY

Psychology will figure largely in the showing of the temperamental Yankee outfit. Potentially strong in every department, the club is some what of an uncertain quantity with Babe Ruth already showing the strain of over anxiety in his attempt to gain lost slugging results.

Against the Yankee twirling array, Ty Cobb will match the powerful attack of the heaviest hitting club of the league, seasoned with better than average pitching, led by one of the most dynamic figures the game has ever known.

The progress of the Boston Braves under the presidency of Christy Mathewson and the showing of the Phillies under their new manager, Art Fletcher, will be interesting. Brooklyn is in the throes of reconstruction.

Washington, piloted by Donnie Bush, may be troublesome. Tris Speaker is rebuilding the Cleveland Indians with several promising young stars and Frank Chance is yet in the early stages of revitalizing the Boston Red Sox.

Here's Bowling Miracle Man Who Broke Record

When it comes to the miracle man of sport, you just can't overlook Billy Knox, Philadelphia bowler. Rolling in the A. B. C. tournament at Milwaukee, Knox in nine games has piled up the remarkable total of 2019 pins.

In accomplishing such a remarkable feat Knox put on one of the greatest finishes ever staged in all sport.

Ball games won in the ninth, grid-iron contests decided by a long run in the final seconds of play, horse races won by the proverbial nose, fade into significance when compared with the feat of Knox.

When he started his final game he was called upon to roll a score of 275 to win by the margin of a single pin. That meant he must turn in almost a perfect game. Perfect scores are a rarity in national competition. Knox scored 279 in the big test, going to the front in all events with a five-pin margin. If ever a bowler deserved a perfect game, it was Knox.

Last year at Toledo, Barney Spillie established a world's record for the all-events by bowling a total of 1999 pins for nine games.

It was freely predicted that the record would stand for a long time. Knocking over 2,000 pins was regarded as a feat that would seldom be turned.

It is a rather strange coincidence that in the Milwaukee tourney, now in progress, the record has thrice been broken. All within the short space of one week.

Marion McDowell of Cleveland provided the first sensation of the tournament by getting a total of 2003 pins, four better than the best previous mark.

McDowell's performance was no fluke. He is rated one of the best bowlers in Cleveland. Recently in a series with George Uhlo, Cleveland pitcher, McDowell turned in 27 strikes.

Charley Daw of Milwaukee next drew the spotlight with a total of 2014 for nine games. None of the bowling experts believed this mark would be shattered, yet it stood only a few days.

Knox, in compiling his great record of 2019, bowled 618 in the team event, 688 in the doubles and 715 in the singles.

DO YOU KNOW?

"How much did the players get out of the world's series last year?"

A FAN.

The Giants got about $4,470 each, and the Yanks about $3,225 each.

"What is the largest playing field in the major leagues?"

INTERESTED FAN.

The Yankee stadium in New York with a seating capacity of 65,000, accommodates more spectators than any other park but Braves Field in Boston covers the greatest area.

"Doesn't the showing of Mrs. Molla Mallory against Miss Legation show that America is due for a new woman's champion this summer?"

TENNIS ENTHUSIAST.

Not necessarily. Mrs. Mallory was playing under heavy handicaps. She had no time after her arrival to get acclimated or adjusted to the peculiar light conditions that prevail in the Riviera. No champion can go on forever and Mrs. Mallory has been on the throne for a long time but her downfall is not assured because she was so badly off form this winter.

GYPSY LIFE

HOW would you like to quit your job, pack up and start out on a gypsy tour to see the country with your home on wheels—built on a motor truck or traveling by flivver and sleeping in a tent?

"Believe me, I'll tell the world, that's the life."

Artist Satterfield pictures it in the above pen drawing. Mother cooking in the open instead of cooped in a hot, small kitchen. Children climbing trees, chasing each other and exploring nature instead of playing on hot city pavements with their lives in danger. Father with nothing on his mind except his hair, at leisure to smoke his pipe in peace and fish whenever there's a stream or lake near camp.

You noticed an increasing number of these camping families. That is the greatest blessing brought by the auto—it gets gypsy people into the glorious fresh air of the country, and farm people quickly to cities or distant country friends.

Some of us would have to save for years to get enough money ahead to live this gypsy life for many months. Sometimes we envy the rich man who can camp in style with servants to do the work. But we wonder if a better time isn't had by the auto touring the country in a rickety old flivver.

City life kept its residents imprisoned for centuries, on account of inadequate transportation. The auto makers, are taking the prison bars.

Later the airplane will be cheap and fool-proof. All families can live in the country and fly to and from work in the city, also take extremely long trips in a few days to view the earth's wonders. The best time to live lies ahead—not in the past or present.

DANGERS IN BONDED DEBT

STATES and municipalities in March floated only about 70 million dollars worth of long-term bonds. In March of last year the figure was nearly 126 millions. However, in the first three months of 1923 the states and municipalities issued almost a quarter of a billion dollars of long-term bonds. This rapidly soaring debt is a greater menace than the national debt.

DIGGING GRAVES WITH OUR TEETH

RACE HUDSON, waitress who served President Harding many meals during his vacation in the south, described him as a "light eater"—only a bowl of half-and-half for lunch and for dinner a light meal with never any dessert.

Harding takes life easily and isn't digging his grave with his teeth. This, and his sensible relaxation in a good outdoor exercise (golf) keeps him healthy tho his job is of a higher nervous tension than any other American's. His is a system that would beat most of us fit and peppy. We eat too much, too fast, and don't get enough exercise. Then wonder why we're not "feeling so snuff."

SUPERSTITIONS STILL WITH US

TO keep baby from bumping into the stove when he begins to toddle, tie a squirrel's claw or the small ear-bones of a rat around his neck. This is done in many out-of-the-way sections of the country, says a writer investigating superstitions. It makes us laugh. But—

The $2 bill is becoming so generally shunned as an omen of bad luck that Uncle Sam is thinking of retiring it from circulation. Few of us have altogether shaken the witch doctor's charm out of our brains. So much for heredity.

Mais non, Madame, you are wrong. The cause of your light bills are not the increased rate, nor yet, the elimination of the five per cent cash discount. Which you don't get no more. YOUR SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Prepared for The Lima News by Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson

Joseph's personality is the most popular of all ancient history. No finer biography can be found in any literature. In literary finish and dramatic interest it is unequalled. It narrates in simple picturesque style the story of his remarkable career so that it appeals with powerful interest to universal humanity. The secret of its attractiveness has been assigned by Matheson to the fact it has a good end and "that the brightness is found to have been produced by the actual clouds of the narrative."

Joseph in his interview with his brethren, when he revealed himself to them, in the premier's palace gives us the key that we ought to use in interpreting his marvellous career. Looking back over the period of trials, he says the hand of God moulding his life and fitting him thru the mysteries of providence to be the preserver of his people. He recognized that the most trivial and most important, and the most unlikely circumstances were made to minister to the development of God's purpose. Joseph's unfaltering loyalty to the lessons he learned from his father Jacob and Grandfather, Abraham enabled him to make a clean record so that he became the preserver of his nation. He reaped as a reward for his fidelity to Jehovah and devotion to Him, the honor of being selected in accordance with God's desire and plan as His instrument in saving the children of Israel and preparing them for their mission in the world. God has a program for every individual's life and He will make all things work together for their good and His glory, as He did in the case of Joseph, if they will commit the control of their lives in faith to His care and do His will.

THE BELOVED SON
Some are in the "wartless" life of Joseph an excellent type of the Lord Jesus. Our first vision of a youth in the Bible is the portrait of the beloved son of Jacob, who had failed to learn the lesson from his own experience that partially among children in a family will develop divisions and discords. This is seen in his gift to the motherless child of his three other wives that their father had picked out Joseph to be his heir. The coat was not a patch work of colors but a long white tunic, that extended to the ankles and wrists, and was embroidered about the edge of the skirt and sleeves with a narrow strip of colour. It was worn only by the leisure class. This together with his reports of their evil deeds, that he related to his father, not as a tattler but in an endeavor to preserve the family standards and ideals, had served to increase the hatred that they held against the young man, who evidently was his father's favorite son. While there is an evidence of possible egotism in the life of the youth, yet there is enough evidence of his ability and character to have warranted the father's partiality. No matter upon what grounds Jacob may have held it, nevertheless it is unjustified in any parent, to be partial to their children. Joseph was not ambitious or desirous for power. If he were, he would not have told his brothers concerning his dreams that foretold of his coming supremacy over his father and brothers. The meaning of the dreams of the innocent youth was not then known to Joseph, altho his father and brethren evidently understood their significance. His brothers tried to make light of it by nicknaming him "The Dreamer." In his gift of vision and foresight the germ of his coming greatness was made known. It is the dreamer, whose initiative and vision has in every field made him the pioneer in the world's progress.

Family hatred resulted in Joseph being sold into slavery. It was only the intervention of Reuben that kept the brothers from slaying him, when he came on a mission from the father to enquire concerning their welfare. Nearly a quarter of a century later they recalled how they had seen the anguish in his soul, when they refused to heed his cries for mercy while they were eating. During their absence carrying for the flocks, Ramsey points out that, the lad, crying in the pit, attracted the attention of Midianite merchants, who rescued him, carried him to Egypt, and sold him as a slave to Potiphar.

DISCIPLINE DEVELOPS CHARACTER
Joseph met the change in conditions with the right spirit. He did not find fault, claiming that he had done nothing to merit such punishment. He tried under every circumstance to practice the principles of religion that his father and grandfather had taught him. This resulted in his rapid rise to power in the home of Potiphar and brought him face to face with a temptation that revealed his chastity. He was tempted in a most subtle and intense way that would have caused others to have fallen but Joseph remembered his duty to God and his master, as well as his mistress. He exhibited an unusual type of chivalry, when he protected the woman against herself. He was imprisoned not for yielding to temptation but refusing the peculiar temptation that promised pleasure, prestige and power, such as he dreamed would be his, as a lad. He endured the suffering in the "hole" in silence, refusing to incriminate the guilty person or even to protect himself from the false charge.

The passage from power to prison did not undo the man. He continued to resist all infectious influences. He was enabled to preserve himself from a morbid attitude toward life because of his constant fellowship with Jehovah. We are taught that we are made perfect by suffering. Joseph needed some rough experience to bring out the best that was in his character. His foolish self-conceit and vanity were removed. The selfishness, that was being developed as the father's favorite son, was checked, curbed and corrected. Discipline made a man out of him. It brought out the qualities of strength, endurance, pluck, courage and faith which would have perished in a world of caresses and self-indulgence.

Prisoners for principle have played an important part in moulding the history of the world. Prison life influenced the prophecies of the captivity, the meditation of the martyrs, the prison epistles of Paul and the work of Bunyan. Luther and Tyndale translated the Bible within prison walls. Under the influence of Jehovah, Joseph commenced to minister to others in the prison. He never dreamt that his sympathetic interest in the welfare of the royal cupbearer and the chief baker, who were worried by their dreams, would lead him from prison to the premiership of Egypt. While he gave the credit of interpretation to God, Joseph removed the worry from both dreamers by telling them the significance of their midnight visions. Years later the remembrance of that interpretation resulted in Joseph passing from prison to the premiership of Egypt.

THE EGYPTIAN PREMIER
Summoned into the palace of the Pharaoh, Joseph announced that God gave the interpretation. He followed the requirements of the court. He quickly solved the problem, presented by the rulers, outlined a program, that revealed his constructive statesmanship, and that was approved by the ruler. Critics, who have scoffed at the idea of a famine in Egypt, have been silenced by the discovery of inscriptions that record the presence of famines in the land, one of seven years when the Nile failed to overflow. Another interesting sidelight comes from the monuments that speak of the drastic change thru which the control of the land passed into the hands of the government.

When the famine reached out beyond the borders of Egypt so that it affected Palestine, then Joseph commenced to see how God had prepared him thru the disciplinary tests to fulfill the dreams of his youth. The names given to his children reveal his heart. Manasseh (meaning to forget) the name given to his first born shows how he wanted to forget the quarrels and trials of his old home and the name of his second child, Ephraim, (fruitful), is a confession that in his prosperity, prestige and power he had not forgotten his father and brethren, whom the suffering famine forced to come into Egypt.

When he saw them, he did not exhibit any trace of a spirit of retaliation but one of forgiveness. The philanthropic statesmen, whose genius had saved the nation, after a series of trials that proved that his brothers had become changed by the sorrow thru which they passed, revealed himself to them, provides a place for his father and his flocks in the best part of the country. He acknowledged that God had guided him to be the preserver of His people. There was no rejoicing over the literal fulfillment of early boyhood dreams but there was exhibited the spirit of true brotherhood that enables one to look over the sins and mistakes that filled his life with sorrow and suffering, seeing in the same hand of God, moulding his character and shaping his destiny. Let us exhibit the same spirit in this hour toward all who have wronged us, seek to glorify God, by helping others, and in His time we will reap, as Joseph did life's reward.

CRUIQUI IS MODEL OF GOLF CHAMPION WRITES FOR NEWS-MANHOOD

(BY JOSEPHINE VAN DE GRIFT)
NEW YORK—Who's showing the world how to be physically perfect? Why, the prize fighter.
And who's showing the world how to be morally perfect? Why—er, the prize fighter.
You might just as well come out and admit it. Take this Monsieur Cruiqui, for instance. Monsieur Cruiqui has come over here to shake hands with Johnny Kilbane, after which he expects to sew up the world's feather-weight championship in a bag and take it back to La Belle France.
Would Monsieur Cruiqui stay out after curfew. Or play red dog for so much as a nickel a limit? Or look twice on a piece of French pastry? On Monsieur's life, he would not. Why, bless your soul, he won't even one-step! His favorite music is Carmen.
CRUIQUI'S CAREER
My parley with Cruiqui took place in the office of Dan McKetrick, local representative for Cruiqui, newly arrived in America, who sat meekly in a chair. His manager, Robert Eudeline, sat opposite. The four interpreters hopped excitedly about. "Tell me," I said in effect to Cruiqui, "the story of your life." Cruiqui looked puzzled. The interpreters interpreted. Cruiqui began to speak. The four interpreters gesticulated wildly. Out of it all I was able to gather the following things about Cruiqui:

Cruiqui is 30 years old and weighs 122 pounds. His first official combat took place when he was 15 years old. It was a small affair of four rounds, but Cruiqui was victorious and a grateful manager bestowed upon him the sum of 15 francs. Cruiqui blew in his winnings on the gang and straightway became a popular idol. Since that time he has taken part in 165 bouts and has won all but eight of them.

WORLD WAR HERO
The official record of his battles does not include the late European conflict in which Cruiqui encountered a bullet which tore away the lower part of his jaw, disrupted 19 of his teeth, cruelly lacerated his tongue and finally emerged triumphantly at the back of his neck.

French surgeons pored around with him, took out a piece of one of his ribs, and used it to make Cruiqui a new jaw. Then they made him a new set of teeth. But for two years and more Cruiqui lay in the hospital, speechless and without hope.
Enter Monsieur Eudeline, "Courage, boy, courage," whispered Monsieur Eudeline, who had already seen something of what Cruiqui could do. Cruiqui took courage and staged the comeback which made him champion of Europe.

Sleep is the most important item in Cruiqui's daily routine. He sleeps from eight to 10 hours and takes a short nap during the day. For breakfast he has "café au lait," cup of coffee. For luncheon and supper he has many, many vegetables and much red meat. Chicken he does not like, it has "too many bones." For an hour or so each afternoon he plays belotte with his trainer or sparring partners. But it is for recreation, not gain. There was a time before the war of course—Cruiqui leaned back in his chair and smiled pleasantly at the recollection.

A. A. U. MAY LET PADDOCK GO TO EUROPE AFTER ALL

BOSTON—Now that Charlie Paddock crack spitter, has started on his way across the United States and has announced he will sail soon from New York for Europe to take part in the Paris games, the Amateur Athletic Union has modified its views slightly. A vote is being taken, if the Paris games are "recognized," Paddock will be "allowed" to go by the A. A. U.

BABE RUTH'S GOLF WORK GETS HIM IN BAD SITUATION

SPRINGFIELD, Mo.—Early in the morning Babe Ruth decided he would take a little exercise with his golf clubs.
So he went out on the edge of the railroad tracks and gave the little rubber pill a healthy swat.
Then he heard a yell and a trainman came up the track and demanded an explanation of his broken lantern.
Hereafter the Babe thinks he'll do his exercising in the day time.

"A stylist without a peer!"
This is the compliment that Jock Hutchison pays to Mike Brady, western open champion, who has become a regular contributor to the News sport page.
Brady has been playing golf for 25 years and always has ranked among the country's 10 best golfers.

Twice Brady has tied for the honor of winning the national open championship, only to lose the title in the playoff.
In 1911 at Wheaton he finished in a triple tie with McDonald Smith and J. J. McDermott. In the playoff he finished second to McDermott by two strokes.

In 1913 Brady finished second to McDermott once more.
In 1919 at the Braeburn course in Boston he finished in a tie with Walter Hagen. In the playoff Hagen beat him by one stroke, 77 against a 78.
In a dozen championship tournaments Brady has lost by only a stroke or two. This hard luck, instead of disheartening him, has made him a keen analyst of the game—for after every match Brady goes over his play stroke by stroke, studiously, critically, figuring out wherein he erred and how to improve his game.

The benefit of this information he passes on to winter players at the Miami County Club and summer to players at the Oakland Hills Club in Detroit, where he succeeded Walter Hagen, British open champion.

And henceforward he will pass it on to readers of the News sport page.

N. Y. Clubs Favored To Win

NEW YORK—Baseball fan's pulse beat a little quicker today as the smoke of another diamond campaign became more pronounced. With most of the other major league squads already on their home grounds, all three Metropolitan clubs today were scheduled for their first home appearances in exhibition games, the Yankees playing Brooklyn while the Giants engaged the White Sox.
According to camp followers, both championship New York clubs are in excellent condition. Taking into account the inevitable uncertainty of the game a majority of experts view the coming American League race as a neck and neck struggle between the Yankees and Ty Cobb's Detroit Tigers. In the National League they predict a three-cornered affair with the Giants, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati.

OUTSIDE CHANCE

An outside chance is conceded the Chicago Cubs in the National League, while the Chicago White Sox, more potent than at any time since the departure of the 1919 world's series scandal principals and the Philadelphia Athletics, rely on the strength of their pitching staff of his famous team of a decade ago, looms as factors in the American League struggle.

On paper, the Giants appear the most likely of the New York entries to repeat. The twirling staff is the most vulnerable point.
Pittsburgh's seasoned veterans will concede little, if anything, to the Giants on all-around strength and in addition the Pirates have a more consistent pitching staff. Cincinnati may feel the absence of the veteran Jake Daubert for a while, because of illness, but the Reds have a youthful outfit besides a corps of box men second to none in the league.

PSYCHOLOGY
Psychology will figure largely in the showing of the temperamental Yankee outfit. Potentially strong in every department, the club is somewhat of an uncertain quantity with Babe Ruth already showing the strain of over anxiety in his attempt to gain lost slugging results.
Against the Yankee twirling array, Ty Cobb will match the powerful attack of the heaviest hitting club of the league, seasoned with better than average pitching, led by one of the most dynamic figures the game has ever known.

The progress of the Boston Braves under the presidency of Christy Mathewson and the showing of the Phillies under their new manager, Art Fletcher, will be interesting. Brooklyn is in the throes of reconstruction.

Washington, piloted by Donnie Bush, may be troublesome; Tris Speaker is rebuilding the Cleveland Indians with several promising young stars and Frank Chance is yet in the early stages of revitalizing the Boston Red Sox.

Here's Bowling Miracle Man Who Broke Record

When it comes to the miracle men of sport, you just can't overlook Billy Knox, Philadelphia bowler.
Rolling in the A. B. C. tournament at Milwaukee, Knox in nine games has piled up the remarkable total of 219 pins.
In accomplishing such a remarkable feat Knox put on one of the greatest finishes ever staged in all sport.
Ball games won in the ninth, grid-iron contests decided by a long run in the final seconds of play, horse races won by the proverbial nose, fade into significance when compared with the feat of Knox.
When he started his final game he was called upon to roll a score of 275 to win by the margin of a single pin. That meant he must turn in almost a perfect game.

Perfect scores of 300 are a rarity in national competition. Knox scored 279 in the big test, going to the front in all events with a five-pin margin. If ever a bowler deserved a perfect game, it was Knox.
Last year at Toledo, Barney Spillie established a world's record for the all-events by bowling a total of 1099 pins in nine games.
It was widely predicted that the record would stand for a long time. Knocking over 2,000 pins was regarded as a feat that would seldom be turned.
It is a rather strange coincidence that in the Milwaukee journey, now in progress, the record has thrice been broken. All within the short space of one week.

Marion McDowell of Cleveland provided the first sensation of the tournament by getting a total of 2003 pins, four better than the best previous mark.
McDowell's performance was no fluke. He is rated one of the best bowlers in Cleveland. Recently in a series with George Ohio, Cleveland pitcher, McDowell turned in 27 strikes.
Charley Daw of Milwaukee next drew the spotlight with a total of 2014 for nine games. None of the bowling experts believed this mark would be shattered, yet it stood only a few days.
Knox, in compiling his great record of 2019, bowled 618 in the team event, 684 in the doubles and 715 in the singles.

DO YOU KNOW?

"How much did the players get out of the world's series last year?"
A FAN.
The Giants got about $4,470 each and the Yanks about $3,225 each.

"What is the largest playing field in the major leagues?"
INTERESTED FAN.
The Yankee stadium in New York with a seating capacity of 65,000 accommodates more spectators than any other park but Braves Field in Boston covers the greatest area.

"Doesn't the showing of Mrs. Molla Mallory against Mile Leghorn show that America is due for a new woman's champion this summer?"
TENNIS ENTHUSIAST.

Not necessarily. Mrs. Mallory was playing under heavy handicaps. She had been ill before she sailed and she had no time after her arrival to get acclimated or adjusted to the peculiar light conditions that prevail in the Riviera. No champion can go on forever and Mrs. Mallory has been on the throne for a long time but her downfall is not assured because she was so badly off form this winter.
